Dear Carol,

Dauphin Street was ready for its closeup last month as a commercial for Mercedes-Benz of Mobile was shot early one Saturday morning. The commercial, with dealer Ronnie Lemarque at the corner of Dauphin and Joachim streets, is now running in heavy rotation on local stations. It may be the only Mercedes commercial where the location is as lovely as the cars!

Meanwhile, another month and another "best" list for the Port City. The housing meltdown has left cities across the country with wobbly economies, but BusinessWeek magazine has named Mobile as one of the top 30 housing markets in the nation. Now, if only folks just now moving to Mobile could sell their homes in other cities, our housing market would really take off!

Development Buzz

Just last month we announced the plans for the Candlewood Suites Hotel, an 81-suite hotel for the extended-stay business traveler. Less than four weeks later, ground was broken for the project with more than 100 in attendance. The hotel is scheduled to open in about a year, filling a much needed niche in downtown.

In other development news:

- The Radisson Admiral Semmes has announced a plan to expand the hotel and add condominium units on land just south of the current building. The plans call for an additional 100 rooms and 50 condo units, as well as office space. Total cost for the expansion is estimated at $27 million.

- The Southern High Speed Rail Commission has moved its offices from New Orleans to the GM&O Building, where it will receive staff support from the South Alabama Regional Planning Commission.
- Melodix Music Hall will be opening at the end of September at 9 S. Joachim Street, in the building last occupied by Alabama Contemporary Dance. The venue will offer live music ranging from light to heavy rock.

Retail Happenings

Shopping, Dining and Entertainment News

One of Downtown Mobile's most charming boutiques has moved into its permanent location on Bienville Square at 7 N. Conception Street. Inside Up has already attracted a loyal following of shoppers looking for a great gifts and must-haves for the home and wardrobe! The new location is a light-filled, spacious and beautifully arranged space, with a second floor for larger furniture items. Stop in and check out the latest fall fashions or just visit with the friendly proprietors!

In other retail news:

- Cafe Royal at Royal and Dauphin streets has announced that Chef Kevin Brooks from Blu Bistro in Springhill is now taking charge in the downtown landmark's kitchen. The menu features fresh, local seafood and Greek specialties. There are also great lunch and dinner specials daily.
- After 15 years of satisfying the breakfast and lunch demands of folks from across the region, Spot of Tea After Five is open at night with a new menu. Chose from a variety of steaks, Italian dishes or Gulf seafood favorites. And because it's always time for an order of Eggs Bienville, breakfast is available whenever the restaurant is open.

Dinosaurs to Invade Downtown this Winter

Exploreum Announces Fall/Winter Events

We're not sure whether dinosaurs ever roamed the land beneath the streets of Mobile, but they'll be making a 21st century appearance in the Port City early next year.

Dinosaurs Downtown, a huge (literally) exhibit will open at the Exploreum in January. The traveling exhibit will feature 10 life-sized animatronic dinosaurs, a dinosaur photo opportunity and a fossil dig where young children can excavate for their very own "fossils." The animatronic dinosaurs will move, roar and, in some cases, even spit for Exploreum visitors.

Even though people living and working downtown tend to be more fit than their suburban counterparts, there is always room for improvement. The Gulf Coast Exploreum is providing that opportunity with a new program called EXPLORE YOGA, a 10-week program designed for active seniors that provides yoga instruction, weekly health assessments and wellness classes. The program takes place every Thursday beginning Aug. 27 and lasting through Oct. 29. For only $49, active seniors can now sign up for this new and innovative program that combines fun, fitness and wellness to drive measurable results.

NASCAR fans, start your engines! Join us September 5th as we welcome five Mobile International Speedway drivers and their cars to the Exploreum for the grand opening of NASCAR: The IMAX Experience! Back by popular demand, this film will light up the IMAX screen this fall as fans experience America's favorite spectator sport. Learn the history of NASCAR, told by some of it's most admired drivers, and then go full-throttle with a look at the sport today. NASCAR: The IMAX Experience is narrated by Golden-Globe winner Kiefer Sutherland. This film is showing September 5th through November 25th.

Also opening this fall - Animalopolis! Take a walk on the wild side with waltzing bears, singing lions and a calf who would rather dance than walk! Animalopolis features 12 different animals that will have your children wanting to learn more about the creatures they're seeing. Animalopolis will run September 5th through January 3rd.

Unity Point Grand Opening This Saturday

Mayor Sam Jones and the Mobile City Council will be dedicating Mobile's newest green space this Saturday, August 22nd from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. at the corner of Broad Street and Springhill Avenue. Unity Point will celebrate the lives and partnership of Joseph Langan and John L. LeFlore, two leaders whose work during the Civil Rights movement encouraged Mobilians to put aside their differences to unite around common goals.

The centerpiece of the triangle green space is a statue of the two men by Mobile sculptor Casey Downing. Unity Point will serve as a beautiful, welcoming gateway into downtown at one of our busiest intersections.

BayFest Announces New Acts
Tickets now on sale throughout city

R&B superstar Anita Baker and Stone Temple Pilots have been added to an already stellar lineup for BayFest 2009. The three-day music festival begins on October 2, 2009 and features 125 artists on nine stages throughout Downtown Mobile.

Three-day passes for BayFest are just $35 and are on sale now at www.bayfest.com. Purchase tickets before September 1 and you'll be automatically entered to win a meet & greet with an artist of your choice (some rules apply). Weekend passes can now be purchased in outlets, which include Circle K stores, Regions, Hancock, and Whitney Banks, IP Casino in Biloxi, and the Downtown Mobile Alliance.

Issues of Homelessness Discussed

A recent survey indicated that one of the biggest issues facing Downtown Mobile's continued redevelopment is dealing with panhandlers and the homeless. Problems of homelessness plague cities across the country and both public and private sector groups are working to find solutions.

In Mobile, a Homeless Roundtable discussion group, organized in part by the Homeless Coalition and Housing First, has been formed to develop workable solutions for the management of our homeless population. The group meets every second and fourth Tuesday of the month at noon, usually at Government Street Presbyterian Church. Solutions will be developed only if there is input from all downtown stakeholders: homeless service providers, business and property owners and the government. A discussion group with only service providers around the table is not likely to move beyond the discussion stage. If you're interested in joining this important group, contact Clayton Ratledge at clayton@downtownmobile.org. The next meeting is August 25th at noon at the Downtown Mobile Alliance office at 261 Dauphin Street.

Annual Meeting Tickets Selling Briskly Event to take place on September 2nd

If you want to make sure you have a seat at the Annual Meeting of the Downtown Mobile District Management Corporation and the Downtown Mobile Alliance, be sure to let us know soon. The event usually sells out and this year appears to be no exception.

With Dr. David Bronner, CEO of the Retirement Systems of Alabama, as the keynote speaker, interest in the event is high. His comments never fail to make headlines. This is also a great opportunity to celebrate the accomplishments of the past year and recognize the Main Street Mobile award winners.

International Shipholding Coordinates Drive for Children

As children head back to school, we're well aware of the need for all sorts of school supplies, but many children in our community have even more basic needs. To help fill the gap, International Shipholding Corporation is coordinating a "Personal Items Drive" for approximately 299 children in the Roger Williams Housing Community.

Items needed for the children ranging in age from 5 - 15 include: detergent, toothpaste, toothbrushes, dental floss, soap, white ankle socks, plain white t-shirts, deodorant, shampoo, lotion and hair care products (combs, brushes and barrettes, etc.). If you're interested, just begin gathering the items listed and contact Sheila Dean 251-243-9230 to let her know where to pick up the donations. The items will be collected the week of September 8, or you can bring your donation to our Annual Meeting on September 2nd and leave them in the collection box.

Downtown Doings

Some events around Downtown Mobile

Mummies

Exploreum IMAX Theater

Now through Tuesday, September 4

Follow researchers and explorers as they piece together the archeological and genetic clues of Egyptian mummies. These relics of the past create a window into the fascinating and mysterious world of the pharaohs. In addition to increasing our understanding of the culture, religion, medicine, and daily life thousands of years ago, scientists today are reconstructing mummy DNA and deciphering ancient texts to gain insight into modern human genetics and advance medical treatments. To unwrap the secrets of the pharaohs is to perhaps glimpse the future of our own civilization.

No Seriously: Humor & Happiness In Contemporary Art
Space 301

Now through Sunday, September 6

This exhibition is a collection of such fun and humorous works, as varied, as understated, as over-the-top, as the individual artists who created them. The jokes may be subtle, but they're in there; or, the comedy may be apparent while containing a very sober underlying moral. In any event, this exhibition takes a serious look at the lighter side of the human experience in the halcyon days of a Mobile summer leaving all the angst for the darker, colder, and more somber months ahead.

The Living Sea
Exploreum IMAX Theater

Now through Friday, September 4

Celebrate the beauty and power of the ocean as we explore our relationship with this complex and fragile environment. Using beautiful images of unspoiled healthy waters, The Living Sea offers hope for the recovery of those sullied by pollution and the encroachment of man. The Living Sea features oceanographers studying humpback whales, jellyfish, and deep-sea life to show us that the more we understand the ocean and its inhabitants, the more we will know how to protect them. The film also highlights the Central Pacific islands of Palau, one of the most spectacular underwater habitats in the world, to show the beauty and potential of a healthy ocean.

Ocean's 11
Saenger Theatre

Sunday, August 23 at 3:00 p.m.

A gang of ten World War II 82nd Airborne veterans led by Danny Ocean (Sinatra) rob five different Las Vegas casinos (Sands, Desert Inn, Flamingo, Riviera, and Sahara) on a single night.

The gang plans the elaborate New Year's Eve heist with the precision of a military operation. Josh (Davis) takes a job driving a garbage truck while others work to scope out the various casinos. Demolition charges are planted on an electrical transmission tower and the backup electrical systems are covertly rewired in each casino. Tickets are $6 for adults and $3 for Seniors (60+) and Children (12 and under).

Tickets are sold at the door.
