

DOWNTOWN TORPEDOES!

FUN TIMES AHEAD!

To mark the 154th anniversary of the Battle of Mobile Bay, we're staging a reenactment of that epic naval encounter.

Except this time, the Battle will be on land (Cathedral Square), cannons will be replaced by water balloons & super-soakers, and the outcome is uncertain.

5:30 PM

(Don't be late — unlike the original battle, this one is over in a matter of minutes!)

Bring super-soakers and a towel — you'll want to dry off before heading to great downtown restaurants after the battle is decided!

Water balloons (thousands of them) provided.
